'Non-violence is panacea to all problems'

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, OCTOBER 2

Non-violence is the panacea of all the problems, including corruption, terrorism, deprivation, discrimination and discontent prevailing in the society, and is caused by greed.

This was stated by Prof MM Goel, Director, Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development (RGNIYD), while delivering the valedictory address at the 12th Global Youth Peace Fest-2017 organised by NGO Yuvsatta in Chandigarh today.

Lowlife entertainers were exploiting the situation by creating "Who will become a Millionaire" shows on the TV and Indian TV mercenaries had shamelessly copied these exploits as "Kaun Banega Crorepati" to eulogise greed as an acceptable behaviour, he said.

Smallness, simplicity and non-violence were the three remedies for the maladies of the modern society, said Prof Goel.
