Dr.K. Chockalingam, M.A., M.Litt. M.L., Ph.D., born in Kanniyakumari district in Tamil Nadu in India is currently the Chairperson, Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development, (RGNIYD), nominated by the Hon'ble President of India from October 2017.

Earlier he was serving as Chair Professor in Criminal Law at the National Law University, Delhi until the end of February 2014 since May 2012. Before that he was working as Professor of Criminology and Victimology at the Tokiwa International Victimology Institute of the Tokiwa University in Japan from September 2005 until the end of September 2011, after completing his three year term as the Vice Chancellor of a public University, namely, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli in Tamil Nadu state in December 2004. During his stay of six years at Tokiwa University, Japan, he worked as Deputy Director of the Tokiwa International Victimology Institute for two years and finally as Director of the International Centre of the Tokiwa University. Prof.Chockalingam has received international and national awards for his contribution to progressive policy and programmes for crime victims and has been invited to lecture in universities in more than 30 countries (including Harvard and Oxford). He has more than 50 years of teaching and research experience at the University of Madras in India, at the Tokiwa University, Japan and later at the National Law University, Delhi in the field of Criminology, Criminal Law and Victimology. He is considered as pioneering the field of Victimology in India and was the Founder President of the Indian Society of Victimology and he held the position for 13 years.

Dr.Chockalingam started his career as a Lecturer in the National Institute of Social Defence, Govt. of India, New Delhi from 1978 to 1983. In 1983, he was selected to head the newly established Department of Criminology at the University of Madras, Chennai. From 1983 to 2001, he started and consolidated a Master's and Doctoral program, established an exchange program with the University of Illinois, undertook an extensive series of research projects and lectured all over the world. He was a guest lecturer at the Indian National Police Academy for many years. Prof.Chockalingam has been a Life Member of Indian Institute of Public administration for more than two decades and was elected as a Member of the Executive Council of Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) for two terms. He was also elected/appointed to the boards of many national and international organizations. He was the keynote speaker invited by the Law Commission of Sri Lanka at Colombo to discuss the Draft bill on Victim Compensation and Assistance for Sri Lanka in June 2006.

In 2001, he was selected by the Government of Tamil Nadu to become the Vice Chancellor of Manomaniam Sundaranar University in Tirunelveli. He won significant grants for the buildings and infrastructure for the University, established a new work culture including a mission statement that focused on learning lawfulness, taking education to the unreached in rural areas and launched a Master's programme in Criminology and criminal justice. Prof.K Chockalingam earned a name as an Institution builder through his vision, innovation and hard work insisting on the slogan "Excellence in Everything" and created a new work culture among the faculty, students and non-teaching staff of the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli. Through his relentless efforts and dynamic leadership, he motivated the entire faculty and the administrative staff, and for the first time he submitted the university for National assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) assessment and earned the B++ level of accreditation with an institutional score of 80-85% in December 2003 by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) of India.

Participation in UN activities and international conferences

Prof.Chockalingam was an Invited Expert by the UNODC and participated in the VII United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders held at Milan, Italy from 1 to 10 September 1985 and had the privilege of being there to witness and participate in the deliberations on the historic event of the adoption of the UN Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims of Crime and Abuse of Power by world countries for the first time, which led to the adoption of this instrument, called as magna carta for victims by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 29 November 1985. In the year 2000, on invitation by the UNODC, and as Individual Expert, he prepared the theme paper on 'Offenders and Victims: Accountability and Fairness to the Criminal Justice System' for the 10th UN Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders held from 10-17 April, 2000 at Vienna. He has been an invited expert and participated in many UN and international activities, including the preparation of:
