

Transparency
and accountability

Systematic and methodological approach

CENTRE FOR MONITORING EVALUATION AND IMPACT ANALYSIS (CMEIA)

Functions of CMEIA

(As recommended by Mentor Group)

- a) Functioning as the nodal agency, monitor the implementation of youth policies and programmes of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Department of Youth Affairs of State Governments and other Ministries in which the youth groups are the direct beneficiaries.
- b) Undertake the evaluation of youth development programmes, both summative and formative, to ascertain their utility and the extent to which the benefits are reaching young people.
- c) Develop projects, including tools and instruments for impact analysis to assess the value and relevance of existing programmes and schemes to the young people.
- d) Prepare projects for understanding institutional and organisational dimensions of youth development work and functioning of youth organisations.
- e) Monitor and evaluate the implementation of National Youth Policy.

#1: “Functioning as the nodal agency, monitor the implementation of youth policies and programmes of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Department of Youth Affairs of State Governments and other Ministries in which the youth groups are the direct beneficiaries.”

- Exposure Draft of the National Youth Policy 2014
- Final Draft of the National Youth Policy 2014
- Member of the Drafting Committee for Tamil Nadu State Youth Policy
- Contributed to the Youth Consultation in South India to provide inputs for National Youth Policy 2021 (Draft) organized by UNFPA, UNV, Pravah and CYC

#2: “Undertake the evaluation of youth development programmes, both summative and formative, to ascertain their utility and the extent to which the benefits are reaching young people.”

- Developed Policy Briefs for the Government of Tamil Nadu with support from UNICEF on the following thematic areas

1. Policy Advocacy
2. Education
3. Ending Child Marriage
4. Child Protection
5. Health
6. Nutrition

#3: “Develop projects, including tools and instruments for impact analysis to assess the value and relevance of existing programmes and schemes to the young people.”

(LIVED LEADERSHIP MARKERS): Mapping the journey of an engaged Youth Worker

1. To map youth workers' own journey of working with, leading and supporting self-leadership, and inspiring youth
2. To recruit and assess one's performance and identify self-development needs as a youth worker
3. To build a scaffold learning plan that help develop critical capacities of a youth facilitator
4. To develop and mainstream youth work by demystifying and making its core qualities more explicit, and an understanding of youth work more accessible

FUTURE STRATEGY

- Capacity Building of Grassroot level Youth Organisations for better development Impact
- Offering Specialised on Courses on M&E
- Undertake the evaluation of youth development programmes, both summative and formative, to ascertain the extent of their efficiency, penetration and sustainability
- Strengthening the technological architecture to deploy courses through blended and online mode
- Work out linkages with international organizations, Institutes and universities to broaden the scope of Youth work and to facilitate knowledge development in the area of sustainable youth development

CONTACT

Dr. P. Sivakumar

Head, Centre for Monitoring, Evaluation and Impact Assessment (CMEIA);

Assistant Professor & Head i/c,

Department of Development Studies,

Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth
Development (RGNIYD)

Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, GOI

Sriperumbudur, Tamil Nadu, India 602105,

Phone No: 04427163872, Fax: 04427163227

Email: sivakumar.rgniyd@gov.in,

skrgniyd@gmail.com